

Web Growth

Internship & Job Description.

Intern will research the African travel industry such as hotel industry, vacation destinations, accommodation etc and write articles about them. Employer clients will also give topics on what to write about, which will all be travel related. Intern will also learn geography of specific vacation areas and types of accommodations available to visitors including Search Engine Optimization.